CLARA TO WED

LOS ANGELES, July 11.— Clara Bow and Harry Richman, New York musical comedies favorite and night club proprietors, are to be married in about five weeks, according to Richman's statement today.

All that prevents an immediate wedding are two motion picture production schedules, one at Paramount and another at United Artists, for Richman.

Dense Throngs Pack Streets in Front of Quarters of Yancey, Williams

ROME, July 11.—Proud over the distinction of being at the goal of a successful transatlantic flight, the two aviators, Yancey and Williams, were welcomed by a throng of people in front of their quarters.

From an early hour of the morning, dense throngs packed the street in front of the Hotel Excelsior, where the fliers spent the night following their arrival from Santander, Spain.

Waiting for the fliers to make their appearance, special squads of police were assigned to keep the crowds in order and traffic in the street was severely hampered by the congestion.

No program has been mapped out as yet for the fliers concerning their turn to Page 2

THE big war was started by a murder in the Balkans, when so-called "Serbian patriots" murdered the Austrian heir apparent.

Now four Balkan nations are "ceilinging" to use the customary expression. Bulgarians and Jugoslavs indulge in a pitched battle. Croats, Serbs and Hungarians have a quarrel that will need the attention of the League of Nations.

Patching nations together, making new nations out of old material, does not end old hatreds.

Ancient Filipinos were buried sitting down, in huge porcelaine jars, sealed at the top. A sitting skeleton was recently taken from one of the jars, near Manila.

Those ancient primitives probably wanted their bodies to be safe from the rats, while waiting for Jumbo Jumbo to come and get them. They have waited some time. When, as, if these jars are emptied for the judgment day, what a surprise for the Filipinos, meeting kindly Angel Gabriel instead of a vindictive Island god.

SIX MEN ARE KILLED IN ERIE TRAIN WRECK

Passenger Trains Crash into Derailed Freight at Corning, N. Y.

FOUR OF CREW DIE

Two Tramps Trapped in Debris; Passengers Escape with Minor Hurts

CORNING, N. Y., July 11.—Five men were killed outright and another died in the crash here today of a derailed east-bound Erie freight train and passenger train No. 6 from Cleveland.

Three cars of the passenger train caught fire and were burned.
The dead are Engineer F. E. Blake, of Hornell, Fireman M. J. Laque, of Susquehanna, Pa., and Mail Clerk H. A. Fagin, of Salamanca and H.
M. Hurlbert, of Lockport, and two tramps, who were riding the freight train.

The baggage, express and mail cars of the east-bound passenger train caught fire and were destroyed.
Several cars of the freight train overturned after it left the rails. A number of automobiles with doctors and nurses, were rushed to the scene to render first aid treatment.

The wreck occurred on a stretch of through track two miles east of here. The freight, carrying more than 40 cars, was proceeding on the westbound track when it crashed into some obstacle, derailing a score of cars. Amid this debris the bodies of the two hoboes still remained.

Train No. 6, which had left Cleveland for New York yesterday, was going 15 miles an hour when it crashed into the wreckage which had been strewn along the eastbound tracks.
The locomotive was hurled on its side, and the mail car crashed.

The other burned cars likewise were upturned and the victims had no chance to escape. Officials of the Erie believed that they had been killed instantly.

None of the 75 passengers were seriously injured, the sleepers remaining on the rails. Several were shaken up, but none required medical attention.

Wrecking crews rushed here on special trains expected to clear the railroad of this afternoon.

Meanwhile all traffic in both directions was diverted to the back-savanna tracks.

ASK HOOVER TO PUT LID ON WASHINGTON

Lord's Day Alliance Executives Would Ban Sunday Amusements

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Executives of the Lord's Day Alliance, who with Bishop James Cannon, Jr., yesterday asked President Hoover to support a Sunday closing law in the capital, returned to the White House today in quest of a written statement of the president's views.

The visitors, the Rev. David G. W.
Bowling, president, and the Rev. H. L.
Bowling, of New York, secretary, did not see Mr. Hoover. They were met by George A. H. Smith, presidential secretary, who assured them the president would reply to their request in "due time."

President Hoover did not commit himself during his short conference with the churchmen and today's visit was to obtain his views on the plan of closing Washington movies, ball park and other enterprises on Sunday "for their record."

CITY BUDGET SET AT $604,142 FLY TOWARD 300-HOUR GOAL

CALIFORNIANS UP 218 HOURS

Mendell and Reinhart on Tenth Day of Their Endurance Flight

ENCOUNTER BAD FOG

Motor Sounds "Sweet" as It Roars on in Its Test

CLIVER CITY, Calif., July 11.— In the tenth day of their grueling flight, Loren Mendell and R. B.
"Pete" Reinhart today doggedly drove their stout endurance plane Angeleno onward toward their self-set goal of 200 hours of continuous flying.

Emerging victorious from an all-night battle with a menacing fog, the two flyers still stuck to their record-smashing grind after having remained aloft 218 hours at 9:30 o'clock, Los Angeles time, this morning.

First intimation that the prolonged ordeal was beginning to wear on both the Angeleno and the pilots was contained in a note that floated in the runway from the endurance craft today.

The note alluded to a "noisy motor" and failed to include the usual request for breakfast.

Breakfast Taken
"All OK with us. Will make 300 hours at least," said the note.
"Motor a little noisy but not bad find a little trouble with oil pump."

GIFTS GALORE ENDURANCE PILOTS

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—L.
W. Mendell and R. B. Reinhart were "broke" to achieve their ambition to remain in the air longer than man ever had before, but plenty was being done today to remedy that.

Today uncalculated contributions to an "appreciation fund" were pouring in, and the total already in excess of $1,000.

A gift of $2,000 was announced by the Wright Aeronautical Corp. of Paterson, N. J.

A 200-horsepower Wright aircraft motor was given by the Pacific Airplane Works.
A $13,000 direct ship to the Angelenos was ordered by the Bull Airspeed Co. to be ready for Mendell and Reinhart when they returned to earth.

Last night but have straightened it out now."

Shortly after 7 o'clock the refueling ship, a Curtiss "Carrier Pigeon," went aloft to transfer 100 gallons of gasoline and five gallons of oil to the endurance plane.

Despite the absence of a request for breakfast, the contact plane carried cinnamon rolls and coffee to the fliers.

GOLF FATAL

Man Dies After Playing Toledo Course

TOLEDO, July 11.—Golf, termed as an "old man's game," today proved fatal to Charles Regan, 78, who died in a local hospital from exhaustion which was occasioned by a round of golf yesterday afternoon.
Regan died this morning.

PROWLER SENT TO WORKHOUSE

Walter Price, 19, Sentenced for Terrorizing Women and Children

PLEADS GUILTY

Fine of $100 Included in Penalty Assessed by Municipal Judge

Consisted of terrorizing women and children in different parts of Marion for more than two months. Walter Price, 19, of Mt. Vernon, was fined a 90-day workhouse sentence and a fine of $100 assessed on him this morning by Judge William H. Martin in municipal court, following his plea of guilty.

The penalty given him was approximately one-half of the maximum for the charge of indecent exposure of person. "The maximum is six months in the workhouse and a fine of $200." Price was arrested at his home last night by police and held on investigation until late this morning when a charge was filed signed by Chief J. W. Thompson.

Blows Statement Before his arraignment in municipal court, Price gave a statement in his own handwriting, telling of offenses committed on Church st., Windsor st., Edgewood dr., and Mt. Vernon st., police said.

Police have been on the lookout for Price for several weeks. The last complaint was heard on July 6. Last night police went to his home, took him into custody and later reported his signed statement.

Price's prowling, according to reports, extended into different sections of the city. Children and women were his victims, as he was very careful to avoid being seen by a man in a police suit. Most of his offenses were committed after sunset, although in some instances he was reported seen in daylight.

His wife and infant daughter spent some time with him at the jail, prior to his departure for Dayton, which is expected either today or Friday.

AIRPORT OFFICIAL COMING TO MARION

Will Aid in Establishing Landing Field in Federal Classification

Asked by the airport committee of city council to send a representative to act in an advisory capacity in formulating plans for the Marion airport, officials of the federal division of airports and aeronautics information have announced that William J. Macdonald, airport specialist, will be in Marion late this month.

The national department of commerce at Washington, D. C., has assigned municipal airports, and fixed requirements for these classes into which one of these Marion airports will fall will be decided by the committee when advised of the requirements.

Creation of an airport fund in the city budget for 1930 is seen as a definitive step to provide adequate finance for the maintenance of the port here according to government specifications.

Work is expected to start within a few days on the construction of a four-plane hangar at the airport here.
Grading work for runways is also planned as a step to be taken within a few weeks.

SCHOOL MAN DIES

SALEM, July 11.—Prof. J. W.
Moore, 68, known throughout Ohio educational circles, died in a hospital here today following an operation. He was superintendent of Columbiana county schools for nine years.

POLICE SLAYER DIES SUDDENLY

Barakat, Man Who Killed Officer at Springfield, Succumbs to Wounds

COMPLICATIONS SET IN

Louisville Gunman Had Not Been Believed Seriously Wounded

SPRINGFIELD, July 11.—Just one week, almost to the hour, after he had shot and killed Detective Oliver Hobbs in a gun battle, Theodore Barakat, 22, Louisville, Ky., gangster and gunman, died in the Clark county jail here today.

Barakat suffered several bullet wounds in the gun battle which occurred in the Arcade hotel here fourth of July morning.

His condition was not believed to be serious and after treatment at a hospital he was lodged in the county jail.

Complications set in last night, and after his body had been wracked by three hemorrhages which tore loose his old wounds, the gangster died.

Hobbs shot the man while he lay wounded from a bullet wound which Barakat had fired into his abdomen.
The shooting resulted when detectives went to the room of Barakat, where the gunman was staying with a woman, after seeing the James-manned drive up to the hotel in a stolen automobile.

When the detectives accosted the man, Barakat, he tried to his room where he suddenly opened fire. Hobbs was shot and died within a few minutes. Another detective was wounded but is recovering.

Barakat's death came just three days after he had been indicted by the Clark county grand jury on a first-degree murder charge.

PAPER CO. TO SELL NEWSPAPER HOLDING

Believed To Be Result of Recent Criticism When Deals Were Disclosed

NEW YORK, July 11.—The International Paper Co. is getting out of the newspaper publishing business, it was definitely disclosed today.

W. M. Hurlbut, vice president of the International Paper Co. and the International Paper and Power Co., of which the former is a subsidiary, confirmed reports that the company is negotiating in disposal of all its newspaper holdings.

"Now, the reports are true," Mr.
Hurlbut said this morning. "However, these statements will not be closed out immediately. It will take some time—how long I do not know."

The International Paper Co. it will be recalled, was subjected to criticism in recent months after Archibald H.
Graham, president of the International Paper and Power Co., revealed in testimony before the federal trade commission that it held large financial interests in 15 newspapers.

Now newspapers are involved in the negotiations now in progress. The interests in the other four papers were sold back some weeks ago in the midst of the controversy attendant upon Graham's disclosures before the federal trade commission.

NO, SAYS DELORES

DELORES DEL RIO
CLEVELAND, July 11.—Dolores Del Rio, film actress, denied here today that she was engaged in a romance with Teddie Joyce, master of ceremonies in a Billings, Md., theatre, or to anyone else. She said:
"My heart is all in my work." Joyce came all the way from Baltimore to visit Miss Del Rio over the weekend and rumor of an engagement followed.

FOUR MORE DIE IN OHIO WATERS

Drowning Toll In Buckeye State This Week Reaches More Than Score

The streams and lakes in Ohio again claimed their toll yesterday, having lost persons, two of them young girls, dead today.

Frances Seckman, 11, was drowned in Beaver Creek, near East Liverpool, while bathing. She went behind her bathhouse. She went behind her bathhouse.

The twelfth drowning victim of the Cleveland season was Mike Kuebler, 10, for whom funeral arrangements were being made today. He became entangled in wire attached to an old gun and drowned while bathing in Lake Erie.

Frank J. Grossman, 57, was drowned in the Muskegon river at Zionville when he attempted to exchange seats with a companion in a boat and fell overboard late yesterday.

Miss Maybelle Watts, 13, was drowned when she stepped into a hole while wading in a small stream near South Charleston, late yesterday.

The four dead today bring the toll in Ohio for the present season to more than a score. A few drownings were reported over the past weekend, but were drowned Monday and 10 Tuesday.

Personal services required at elections was set at $1,550, a decided drop from the $2,000 of last year.
Last year's county and presidential elections account for the high 1929
figure.

TOTAL FOR 1930 $8,934 HIGHER

General Operating Expenses of Municipality Figured at $393,905

DEBT FUND REDUCED

Payment of Bonds and Interest $9,620 Less Than in 1929

Operating expenses of the city of Marion, plus the bond retirement and interest funds for the year 1930 have been set at $393,905 or $8,934 higher more than the corresponding figure last year.

The budget for 1930 has been completed by the city council finance committee and will be given a public hearing at a called meeting of council on July 15. Action to certify the requirements to the city auditor will follow the hearing if no objections are made.

For general operating expenses of the city, including salaries of officials and maintenance of a municipal court, and expenses of the police, safety, health departments, a total of $393,905 has been asked for 1930. The 1929 requisition called for $375,000.
Among some of the causes of the higher
of a new fund for the maintenance of the municipal airport which was set at $5,000. Other increases noted are in the police and fire departments, which have been increased by $1,000 each. The two years the town are improved.

The city's debts have been considerably eased by the maturity of several bond issues last year. This not only reduces the principal of the debts but also eliminates the payment of considerable interest.

Appropriation for Debt
The bond and interest fund for the 1930 budget calls for $210,237.40, or $109,128.75 less than last year. This includes only the city's share of the bonded indebtedness, and does not affect the property owners' share. The 1929 budget called for $210,434.21 for the retirement of bonds and interest, or $9,620.61 more than the 1930 budget specifies.

Receipts from state aid to the board of health, still service fees, garbage dump fees, crossing fees, and gasoline collection, are expected to total $149,120, as compared with the receipts of $140,025 last year. This increase comes from the garbage collection department and from an increase of rentals for city property.
The latter item is a result of the annual lease of the city farm this year for $1,000 more than it had been leased for previously.

No Salary Bonuses
It is interesting to note that no provision was made for increase in salaries of any public officials.

Approximately $80,000, estimated revenue from the gasoline tax, will be used for street improvement and repair, but this is exclusive of any other street work the city has outlined in the budget. Nowhere in any other part of the budget is this money mentioned or included in the totals. It is approximately the same as the amount available last year.

drop from the $2,000 of last year.
figure.

Municipal court operating expenses were set at approximately the same as last year for personal services and other expenses being fixed at $11,250, as compared with the $11,200 last year.

Salaries of policemen were increased from $34,150 noted last year to $35,000 for 1930, due to the increase in salaries of several of the men.

Turnkey at Newport, Ky., Prison Hills Until Convicts Begin Work

NEWPORT, Ky., July 11.—Turnkey Edward ("Ducky") Mader, in charge of the cell block in the city jail here, today is credited with frustrating a wholesale prison delivery which would have freed two alleged murderers and many other prisoners.

Mader, working on a "tip" from one of the prisoners, whose name was not disclosed, concealed himself on the second tier of the cell block last night.
The vigil was brief, for two prisoners soon started sneaking through the bars of the "bull pen" which would have given them access to the street and freedom.

Mader remained concealed until the bars had been sawed about half through. Then he called for assistance and rushed the men.

Two Are Held After Man Is Beaten and Robbed

AKRON, July 11.—W. L. Michalek was beaten and robbed of $40 and was thrown from his car here early today by two masked men, he reported to police. He said he was sitting in his car parked in the downtown district.
Police are holding two men who gave their names as Earl Smith and Carlos King, in connection with the holdup.

Far from Ornamental

Why can't something be done about some of these old run-down shacks around town that have been boarded up and left to stand on property that might otherwise be valuable?

Not only are these buildings a detriment on any street where they stand but they are an embarrassment to the people who have to live on that street.

There are about 10 of these old houses on two streets in town. All boarded up. One or another of the laws of the city or state say that buildings that are boarded up in front cannot be condemned as fire traps. Unless the neighborhood signs a petition to the effect that the building is a public nuisance, as some have proposed, to be nothing can be done about ridding the community of these shacks.

People who live in adjoining homes are compelled to pay a higher rate of insurance because of the proximity of such buildings and yet these firetraps are allowed to stand. Why does boarding up the front of an abandoned building prevent it from being a fire trap?

Small Money

Small, new small sized currency is certain to be popular, especially with those who are able to get plenty of it. Smallness in size is nothing new in the way of paper money. In most of us as far as the figures in the corners go.

Arrival of the new bills in Marion Wednesday was the occasion of considerable facetious comment something like the jokes that are cracked when a platonic new motor car goes on the market.

No Escape

It doesn't take long for a motorist to find out that the joy of traveling over the asphalt route is invariably mixed with flaws and perplexities.

One man who drove up to a local repair garage in an uptown alley found that out one day this week. While his car was standing in the alley after an accident in which one of his fenders was bent, a mechanic was giving it the once over to estimate the cost of rehabilitation.

As the examination was in progress a truck came along and put another and larger dent in the other side of the damaged machine.

That is the only sure way to play safe in the city street machine and it was the decision, voiced by the owner of the much abused vehicle.

LOCAL BOY GETS MARKSMAN TITLE

Lowell Haldeman Qualifies in Test at Military Training Camp

Lowell Haldeman of 940 Congress street, one of the Marion boys attending Citizens Military Training camp at Camp Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, has qualified as a marksman according to a report received from the camp headquarters today. His qualification score was 1.1 out of a possible 200.

Lowell Haldeman is in the training camp this year, most of them at Camp Benjamin Harrison.

A full program is scheduled for the coming week of the camp, one of the chief events being an overnight hike Friday night, July 12, the first lunch of real food service.

The column will form early Friday morning out of the post to march to the 11th Infantry Land Rollup, kitchen, recreation and wartime will serve chow at the camp and will sleep under shelter tents similar to those used by regular army soldiers on maneuvers.

Lowell Haldeman is under the supervision of the camp hostesses, Mrs. Lora Kelly of Cleveland and Mrs. Mary Adams of Elizabethtown, Ind. Young women from Indianapolis with their chaperones were present.

Living loaves are held nightly in the dining hall according to Capt. Dan P. Branson, athletic director. The regular military training is progressing satisfactorily, instructors report. An effort is being made to develop leadership among the candidates enrolled in the white and blue courses. The white and blue students of third and fourth year men are appointed non-commissioned officers, and are given certain duties which call for discipline from the bodies and second year students.

Visitors to the camp are welcomed by the army authorities, parents particularly being invited to come and inspect the activities of the camp.

COLUMBUS, July 11.—State Architect Herbert B. Briggs was dismissed from that office by Dr. J. W. Wadsworth, director of public works and today T. Ralph Hilday, Akron was preparing to fill the vacant office following announcement of his appointment.

In discharging the state architect, a Democrat appointed in the ex-Gov. Donahue administration, Wadsworth also a Democrat, issued the following statement:

The architect's office faces a big construction program for this year and the work must be gotten under way as soon as possible. Briggs has spent too much time on details in regard to a new executive policy directing subordinates.

Briggs, the new appointee, is a Republican. He was born 34 years ago in England and received his

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause.

But immediate relief has been found in a tablet called Rexall Order. This tablet attracts water from the system into the large dry evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle thorough natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Order at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. G. G. Unkrich—Adv.

CURB RHEUMATISM! KEEP ACTIVE!

New German Course of Treatments Arousing Sensational Interest

Why let rheumatism keep you crippled and inactive? A new German course of treatment has been so successful that it has been adopted by leading European sanitariums, hospitals and health bath institutions as a logical treatment for all rheumatic ailments.

Transkutan is the backbone of these new treatments, according to claims of German scientists who developed it. Transkutan Treatments act quickly to break up and to drive out the pains, swellings and stiffness of rheumatism. In a clinical test, in 1,000 rheumatic cases, conducted by two of Germany's prominent physicians, Transkutan Treatments were reported successful in all but 2% or 3%!

Marvelous as they are—no extravagant claims are made for Transkutan Treatments. Many rheumatic patients experience an astonishing improvement after the first treatment—yet it must always be borne in mind that rheumatism is a stubborn, treacherous, recurrent disease, and that lasting benefits can only be anticipated after the full course of five treatments, taken one every third or fourth night over a period of 10 days. Failure fully followed out according to directions. Some stubborn cases may require even more treatments. But you run no risk—for we're so sure of Transkutan when all five treatments are taken according to directions, that we have authorized our dealer to refund your money if you are not satisfied with your improvement at the end of the prescribed course.

Why keep on suffering? You owe it to yourself or to your family to get a copy of the new book entitled, "Can Rheumatism Be Driven Out of Your System?" It will tell you what Transkutan should do for you, if you are a usual case of rheumatism. See how the Transkutan course compares in cost and results with equivalent treatments in sanitariums or foreign bathing establishments where the rich go to be cured. Surely it is worth a week's wages, or income or allowance—real several times that—to experience the strange and exciting sensations of this new and very interesting method of attacking and besting the old enemy—feeling yourself of the piercing, nerve-racking pains and depression. ## All MECHANISM ON TOP where it belongs!

THERE are many reasons why all the mechanism of the General Electric Refrigerator is placed on top of the cabinet. Here are 3 vital reasons:

1. Refrigerating mechanisms develop heat in the process of cooling the interior of the refrigerator. This heat escapes and rises. Therefore, General Electric has placed the refrigerating mechanism on top so that the escaping heat travels away from the cabinet.

2. Placing all the mechanism on top of the cabinet achieves maximum food storage space within the cabinet.

3. With the mechanism on top, the inside of the cabinet is free from obstructions and easier to keep clean.

There are now more than 300,000 users and not one has ever spent a dollar for repair. Visit our displayrooms and see the new all-steel models.

Possibly the wife of that Chinese vice

The first wire was stretched, Tuesday, from New Jersey, and thus what has long been a an actuality.

Arrested for accepting a $200 bribe from a bootlegger, a constable in a Chicago suburb was let off with a fine of $100. If he can repeat the operation often enough, he will have the average get-rich-quick game beaten to a frazzle.

In the fourth column of this page, today, under the heading, "Jinks from Lightning," may be found an editorial from the New York Herald Tribune which should be read by every patron of this paper, as it may mean the difference between life and death to the one reading it.

State Prohibition Commissioner Betham announces that law enforcement has shown "marked improvement" in sixty per cent, of the eighty-eight counties of Ohio during the last six months. We take it that Marion county is listed among the forty per cent, in which improvement has not been marked.

Elizabeth R. Butler, New York City social worker, seen nineteen as the dangerous age of girls. If we are to judge by newspaper reports, a lot of old boys with more money than judgment have found them to be dangerous at almost any age, time or place.

The key to the story from Paris telling how a French soldier, who was bathing naked in the River Tarn, met his death because his modesty prevented him from going ashore while people were on the river bank, is that he was not a Frenchman, but a Senegalese.
There's absolutely nothing prurish about the French.

The London Post remarks that, while Ambassador Davies had "permission to indulge in 'independent eccentricity' in not wearing the pants and silk stockings prescribed by etiquette at the Court of St. James, he nevertheless did not represent the sentiments of Americans in London, so many of whose wives and daughters have had the honor of being presented at court." Let us hope that the general never learns how he has jarred the "finer sensibilities" of American ambassadors over there. The shock to him might prove serious.

The New Paper Currency.

Columns upon columns of space were given to the new paper currency by the newspapers of the country for months preceding the putting of it into circulation, Wednesday. The public was made as familiar with its appearance as was humanly possible by way of description. Its reduced dimensions were set out. The various denominations were given, and their designs described. How the public was safeguarded from confusing one denomination with another was cited, the portrait on each denomination, though the same on all bills of that denomination, being different from that appearing on the bills of any other denomination. The saving in paper and ink to the government was noted, and estimates on what the government might gain through loss of the old bills or the ultimate failure of holders to offer them for redemption were made. Note was made, also, of the saving the new bills would afford the treasury and the banks in storage room. In addition to all this, sample bills were displayed in bank windows.

Yet it is very probable that the average man or woman did not appreciate just what the change would mean in personal convenience until one of the new bills came into his or her hands. When one of the new bills is laid on top of an old one, then the difference of half an inch in width and an inch and a quarter in length is better realized and what it means to the holder in more fully appreciated. And when one of the new bills is slipped into a billfold designed for the carrying of the old-size bills, then and only then can there be complete realization of the reduction possible in the size of billfolds when the old bills are no longer in general circulation.

While checks usually figure in major business transactions, all of us naturally must carry about with us some money. The smaller the bulk of the money carried, the easier to find place for it where its presence will not be so obtrusive and it will be less liable to attract the attention of the light-fingered gentry who are far too common in this day and age.

Growing Postoffice Deficit.

In the face of a possible postoffice deficit of $137,000,000 the present fiscal year and an annual deficit of $35,000,000 for the four years immediately succeeding the present, there is little occasion for extended consideration of what is to be done with the surplus of $150,000,000 reported at the close of the fiscal year ended June 30. Ordinarily this year a probable deficit would have been $95,000,000, but the sum of $42,000,000 which the postoffice department must pay the railroads as the result of a court of claims decision increases this year's probable deficit to approximately $137,000,000.

The postoffice department has not been on a self-sustaining basis within the memory of man, regardless of the fact that the treasury department has assisted it in bearing its financial burden. As a matter of fact, it has not been expected to pay its way, the general feeling being that low postal rates are to be preferred to a self-sustaining department. There has long been recognition of the fact that the department may be expected to report a deficit annually, but when the deficit jumps from $13,000,000 in 1921 to $95,000,000 in 1929, exclusive of the $42,000,000 found due the railroads for transporting the mails in the past, the public is naturally inclined to sit up and take notice and the administration is put to consideration of ways and means to meet the situation.

From Washington comes the report that measures which would reverse the government policy of carrying the mails at a great loss, if necessary, as a public service and instead make the beneficiaries of the service rendered bear the expense, are under consideration, as a means of reducing the deficit.

It is pointed out that one step which could be taken would be the reduction of the contract price of carrying air mail and a relative increase in air mail rates. It is also stated that the president will be urged to consider the contention that modernization of the postoffice department's accounting methods would wipe out a large portion of the deficit.

Under the present system, the postal department is required by law to handle hundreds of thousands of tons of congressional "frankings" and departmental "free" mail matter annually. All of it must be accorded first-class handling and the system does not permit the department to take credit for the free service in its accounting.

While it is easy to understand that its accomplishment would be a matter of extreme difficulty, there can be no question but what the wiping-out of the "franking" abuse would strike a popular note throughout the country.

The abuse of the "franking" privilege by members of the two houses of congress has reached such proportions as to be an outrage alike upon the postoffice department and the citizenship of the land, for in one way or another all of us are taxpayers regardless of what our property holdings may be. In some cases the abuse has achieved the characteristics of a public scandal. Members of congress will not willingly surrender the franking privilege and government departments may be expected to try out if attempt is made to abridge their mailing privilege, but public opinion should be directed to apply its might to the working of a reformation.

Three volunteer citizen soldiers, who are held for the slaying of an Oklahoma farmer at his home near Tucuman, are not to receive federal assistance and may not be able to secure the transferring of their trials to a federal court. Sanly is beginning to resign to a certain extent in the matter of the treatment of volunteer prohibition killers.

The motion picture committee of the National Council of Women of Ohio has recommended legislation in all countries to classify motion pictures as public utilities and to regulate the industry. Grant Scott! Aren't they sufficiently bad and the admission prices high enough as it is?

One is bound to confess interest in the announcement that the local traffic code is to be amended to conform to the speed limits set by the state law soon to go into effect.
Interest naturally being augmented by the wonder why there is necessity for the alteration of an ordinance which is studiously ignored and rarely enforced.

Two more Chicagoans have been poisoned by fumes from a mechanical refrigerator in popular use up there, making over a score of such cases in that city recently, a number of them ending fatally. One might imagine that the authorities of the city would find the means of barring the use of such deathtraps.

The Grecian government is opposing a universal suffrage measure proposed by the opposition, holding that beautiful women and women under thirty-five would prove dangerous in the Grecian chamber. We might assuage the fears of the Athens government a bit by sending it the pictures of all those of the gentler sex who have thus far figured in the membership of the legislative branch of our national government.

Several days ago a Portuguese correspondent cabled to the London paper he represented that a number of American detectives had arrived in Lisbon and were searching for Mary Dugan, accused of murdering a banker, it being their belief that she had fled to Lisbon and was in hiding there. Who would have believed that even a movie publicity man would take advantage of innocence such as that?

A party of American tourists spent the better part of a night recently locked up in the Arc de Triomphe. During the afternoon they went to the top of the arch to view Paris and did not understand the call of the guardian, at sundown, that the entrance door was soon to be closed. However, had the tourists understood French, it might have made no difference. Very probably they were so busily engaged crying "O! Looker!" that they wouldn't have heard him.

SUMMER IDYL.

Respiratory Trouble Common.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
I wish little babies could be spared the diseases to which they are liable. But in the nature of things some of these precious infants must suffer as babies have from the beginning of time.

The breathing organs are the weak portions of the child's anatomy. It is here trouble is likely to be found. That is why the "respiratory diseases" are so common in very early life.

Among such ailments is what the doctors call "acute broncho-pneumonia" or "catarrhal pneumonia." Another name is "capillary bronchitis."

The disease is really a form of pneumonia, the peculiar pneumonia of infant life. It is the most common of the pneumonias or "lung fevers" met with in early life.

While the disease may be more common in cold weather, it is seen in every month of the year.

As a matter of fact, according to some figures I have seen, a third of the cases appear in warm weather.

Well-nourished, well-fed and well-kept children are far less likely to have it. If there is some underlying weakness of the system it is more to be dreaded.

This is an ailment which is sudden and severe in its action. The whole attack may be compressed into the short period of twenty-four hours.

The temperature runs very high. There is extreme prostration, blueness of the skin and rapid breathing. The poor youngster is dull and may be actually unconscious.

A strong baby will rally and throw off the disease within four or five days. The attack, as I have said, may come on suddenly, but in spite of its severity, it clears up speedily.

If your baby shows signs of difficult breathing, has loss of appetite and gives evidence of fever send for your doctor. Don't wait a day or two for expert advice. It is always better to be on the safe side.

There is much to do to make the infant more comfortable, and that is another reason for medical attention. Your own anxiety and sense of responsibility will be lessened if your doctor is at hand.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUERIES.

M. R. Q.—What would cause the heart to beat very fast? There also seems to be swelling of the chest and a tearing in both breast and chest?

A.—Palpitation due to either nervousness, indigestion or some abnormality of the heart itself, may be the source of the trouble. Have an examination and then definite advice may be outlined.

M. A. W. Q.—When I eat my throat seems to burn me, but at no other time; what would cause this trouble and how can it be relieved?

A.—Have your throat examined. It would be difficult to diagnose the trouble without seeing your throat.

W. J. P. Q.—What causes the knee to twitch?

A.—What do you advise for constipation?

A.—This may be due to nervousness.

E. L. Q.—Eat simple, well-cooked food. Avoid food unusually rich in fats and starches. Eat stewed fruits and fresh green vegetables.

A. R. W. Q.—What do you advise for enlarged ports?

A.—Try using hot and cold compresses alternately for fifteen minutes night and morning.

One of Your Pupils, Q.—What is acidosis and how can it be treated?

A.—Acidosis is a condition associated with diabetes, being present when this disease has reached the comatose stage. It is, however, often confused with hypoadrenalism, which is due to excess acid in the system caused by faulty digestion and poor elimination. Correction of the diet is essential in both instances. Have your doctor advise you.

H. T. Q.—How much should a girl aged eight-teen, five feet two inches tall, weigh?

A.—She should weigh about 117 pounds.

B. O. S. Q.—What should a boy weigh who is nineteen years old and five feet eleven inches tall?

A.—For your age and height you should weigh about 155 pounds.

O. Q.—What can be done for oily hair? I also have dandruff.

A.—I would suggest frequent shampooing and the use of a good stimulating ointment.—Copyright, 1929, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

RISKS FROM LIGHTNING.

The tragedy at Montreux, where a golfer and two caddies clustered under an umbrella on the links were struck and killed by a bolt of lightning, represents an incident of which every summer brings numerous examples. No one can help avoiding the high percentage of each year's lightning deaths in which the victims were in some open space like a field, golf links or a beach. The umbrella was not a factor. Merely to be a person standing in such an open space during a storm is dangerous. If everybody learned why this is so and remembered the information the more's the part of lightning tragedies would be far less than it is.

Lightning does not strike erratically, like the thunderbolts of a drunken Jove. Its path through the air, the spot at which it hits the ground, most of the characteristics of the average flash, in fact, of every flash, are determined by simple rules governed by all charges of electricity. One thing that gives the path is the electrical conducting power of the air, which is why lightning is especially likely to strike haystacks or barns with new hay in them. Electrical changes taking place in the bay of clouds, streams of heated, electrified air rising from the surface. This provides a conducting path along which electrons from the clouds are especially likely to descend. The danger of golf links and similar open spaces is due to another law of electricity—the tendency of the earth's electricity to accumulate on any object which lifts itself even a little above a stretch of even ground.

It is for this same reason that lightning frequently strikes steeples and trees. The earth electricity, attracted by the opposite electric charge on the clouds, crowds into such elevated objects and electrifies them. That provides attraction for the descending flash. The same thing is true of a person standing on an open field. He is not so tall as a steeple, but he is taller than anything close by. Lightning resembles fate; it prefers to hit the highest heads. To stand close under a tree in a thunder storm is dangerous because the tree may be struck and the flash may damage you, too. To stand in the middle of an open space is even more dangerous, for you are then in place of the tree. The safest outdoor place to be in a thunder storm is some yards away from a tree or tall building, far enough not to be killed if it is hit, close enough to make it effectively higher, so that the strokes will seek it instead of you. If the middle of a field is the only spot available, the safest position is lying flat on the ground.—New York Herald Tribune.

ECCLASIASTICAL COURT IN ENGLAND.

Mr. J. B. Stevens, a landowner of Cambridgeshire, England, is out of jail. He and his fellow countrymen were mightily astonished when he was found to be legally allowed away. He did not get out until he had made his peace with the ecclesiastical court which put him in, and Great Britain is contemplating with some curiosity and some dismay a sturdy survival of medievalism, the power of the church to send a subject over the road.

Mr. Stevens owns some land which had been conveyed some 500 years ago by the church under conditions which required the owner to make repairs. The church of the church, in Huxton, needed repair, and the vicar, rediscovering the terms of the deed, ordered on the landowner to comply with them. The cost would have been inconsiderable and the owner was well-to-do, but being of the bulldog breed, he refused to submit to any such nonsense. The vicar, being of the same breed, determined to maintain the rights of the church. He organized an ecclesiastical court, and before the prisoner or any one else could take a full breath the vicar was in jail for contempt on a writ which the sheriff honored. He was there until he purged himself, the greatest curiosity in the kingdom. There are said to be over a hundred similar cases, and the church, now confident in its authority, proposes to bring the other property-owners to terms.

The British may be inclined to take a look in the old trunk and see what other heirlooms it contains. They may find they have tried by combat and the procuring of testimony with the boot of thunderbolt. It may be legal process in the search for witchcraft to throw the suspect in the water and burn him if he doesn't sink. It may be a capital offense for a nonconforming clergyman to be found within five miles of a village or town.
The king may have the power of divine healing.
It may still be the law that women convicted of capital offenses shall be burned to death as a special protection of their modesty.

Switzerland.

BY TEMPLE MANNING.

At this season of the year thousands of tourists flock to Switzerland. Many of those who make the pilgrimage each year see little of the fascinating country and people, spending all their time in or about the great immortal hotels of Geneva, Lucerne, Bern, and the other resorts. Geneva, however, with an eye for the picturesque and beautiful, exhibits upon little side excursions into the mountain villages of the day republic, and are well paid for their trouble by the memories they bring home.

The annual fair at Montreux, for example, is one of the most colorful and interesting rural spectacles to be seen anywhere in Europe, and fortunate the traveler who witnesses it for he will have some-thing to remember for many years to come. Nor need he be a mere spectator; the hospitable and friendly Swiss peasants at once welcome the stranger and make him one of their own for the time he is in their midst.

Great singing competitions are held in almost all the villages at this time of year.
The competition between the famous choral societies being as keen as it is friendly. Children are taught group singing from earliest school days and almost every person in Switzerland belongs to some sort of singing society.

Another picturesque ceremony which may be seen by the inquisitive tourist a few weeks from now, is the annual Alpplust, held on Sunday mornings in the early spring throughout the nation. This is a charming sight, representing the moving of the cattle up to the Alps for pasturage. The people dress up in their local costumes and march through the villages with their cattle, goats, sheep and pigs, followed by carts or horses laden with great copper cheese-cauldrons and other pamphlets.

The inhabitants of the district gather to see the show, and men wearing old uniforms and carrying arms which probably have been stored away for possible use since the time of Napoleon, lead the procession. Sometimes the setting is very elaborate, and huge hay carts decked out as chariots, carry men and women representing the industries through which the thrifty Swiss peasants thrive.—

An American literary lady reports this as truth. She had been stopping at a seasonal town in Britain, and one day, returning from a walk, said to her landlady:

"Do you know what I saw while I was walking on the beach just now? Two porpoises!"

"Lawks, no? 'Ow did they ever get down on the beach away from the poor houses?"

Mazie—"Gee, this book ends just swell!"

Dale—"Yeah, 'How's it begin?"

Mazie—"Oh, I ain't come to that yet."

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. MINTYRE.

New York, July 11—Gyp night club, at deprived of "important money" that through fear of the rap for indifference liquor sales, since, many have turned to polite blackmail to keep open their places. These are dangerous days for the clubs, the police say.

The Broadway philanthropists are more careful during the summer months. Few are off to Europe and the seashore and all the lonely husbands must have something to do to while away the tedious. The clubs are all prettied up for him along White

Cabaret blackmailing today is conducted with the shrewd trickery that characterizes rum-running and dope-selling. The refined "master mind" is on the job and his underlings are combing the prime-time

Marion Companies Preparing for Camp

Two Marion Ohio National Guard companies will leave here July 21 for the regular training period at Camp Perry. Companies B and D will take about 120 men to the training camp.

Captain W. A. Marks, commanding officer of Company B, stated today that travel orders had not been received from National Guard headquarters at Columbus. The orders, however, are expected to be here by early next week.

Husband Said He'd Treat Her Like Snook Did

COLUMBUS, July 11—Declaring that her husband constantly tells her that "he is going to treat her like Dr. Snook treated his girl," Mrs. Phoebe Tolliver filed a suit for divorce in domestic relations court here.

Mrs. Tolliver, says she is in constant danger of her life. An order restraining her husband, Guy Tolliver, from molesting her was granted by Judge E. V. Mahaffey.

Staking a fortune on the future

FIFTY-SEVEN and one-half millions of dollars is a pretty large sum of money even in these days.

Yet by the end of 1929 the BIG FOUR, in four years, will have invested that sum in improvements and new equipment.

This big outlay of cash reflects the company's faith in the future of the territory that it serves, and in the continuance of the good-will existing between the public and the railroad.

A prosperous railroad giving constantly better service is one of the greatest assets a community can have.

By KATH R. McFARLANE

ASBURY is looking over the hill and Sunday school league today from the top perch as a result of its victory last night over the Lutherans, 5 to 0.

It took nine innings for the league leaders to pull the trick but it not only placed Asbury in top place but practically eliminated the Lutherans from the running. The championship race now rests between Lee Street and Asbury. Lee Street dropped into second place, a half game behind the top berth, when its contest with the United Brethren was postponed. In the other scheduled second league battle the Reformed nine forfeited to the Presbyterians.

Asbury started off the contest with runs in the first two innings. Gullin scored in the first frame and in the second Layman crossed the plate. Cooke held the Lutherans scoreless until the sixth inning, when East and Schwenker scored. The game ended in the ninth with Daniell doing the scoring.

The Lutherans outbit the winners, 8 to 7 but their blunders were kept well scattered by Cooke. Kochensberger failed to get the breaks on the mound for the Lutherans.

Epworth Juniors played heads up ball to break the Christians 5 to 0 in a first league game. The victory placed the Epworth nine into a tie with Christians for fourth place. The contest was the only game scheduled in the loop.

After being held scoreless in the first two innings the Juniors started scoring in the third inning. Lowe was the batting star of the game getting three hits and two runs. Mauls, Shulls and Fisher also scored runs. Jones in shutting out the Christians allowed but five hits. Rank tossed for the losers.

The scores: Lutherans ... 000 000 000—2 0 0 Asbury ... 110 000 001—5 7 1 Kochensberger and O. Thibaut

WALLACE WINS

CLEVELAND July 11—Billy Wallace of Cleveland was given a decision over Tommy Grogan Omaha tonight, last night after a slugging 10 round battle. Dazed from wallop Grogan could not find his own corner after four different rounds. But he staged a spurt in the tenth that all except stopped Wallace. The latter got the verdict but the cheers of a huge crowd were all for the game Grogan.

NEW YORK, N. Y. July 11—Kid Chocolate, Cuban contender for the featherweight boxing throne is one step nearer the title today. He decisively whipped the rugged Ignacio Fernandez in the 10 round feature at Ebbets field Brooklyn last night.

Wilson Just Another Pagliacci, M'Carthy Says

Public Has Been Made a Tragedy by Jeers and Taunts of Fans, Fellow Players

By DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, July 11—Lewis "Hack" Wilson, the sterling youth who brought the back beer age back to baseball, if only for a day, when he tried to punch his way through the Cincinnati player line and live in his own behalf, is just another Pagliacci whose public life has been made a tragedy by the jeers and taunts of fans and fellow players. This was the version of the Wilson-Kolp Donohue incident presented today by Joe McCarthy, Chicago man, a version that, with certain amplifications, will be aired before President John A. Heydler at the final hearing of the case tomorrow.

It probably will save Wilson for the Chicago lineup without further penalty, since it will furnish the second of the customary two sides that are supposed to make up every story. The understanding here is that Wilson will be told to go forth and sock no more.

ATHLETICS PICK UP HALF GAME ON YANKS

Break Even with Browns; New Yorkers Lose to White Sox

NEW YORK, N. Y. July 11—Wanted one rib. Must be in solid condition and in no danger of cracking. For immediate delivery.

Don't be surprised if you run across this singular notice in a few of our leading dailies for Columbus is likely to get that cooperate in his desire to get the Athletics lineup back in the Athletic lineup. Since the Athletics took to the bench with an injured and Mr. Mack's hopefuls have taken two and dropped four, which is certainly no way to win a flag.

Yesterday they managed to break even in a double bill with the pesky Browns. Thanks to the fancy fling of Howard Huhn in the first game who allowed only two hits. This picked up a half game on the Yanks who staggered around all afternoon before the fast shots of Alphonso Thomas, White Sox hurler. Gehrig continued in his hitting slump but Babe Ruth smacked a couple of doubles and was tricky on the bases.

Marty McManus, second baseman for the second time within a week, saved the Yanks' tail from being twisted by slapping a homer with the bases loaded. The Red Sox were the victims this time.

In another of those crucial affairs the Giants couldn't "buy" Ruth and the Cubs furnished their second place position by whipping Mettrow's boys in the first of a five game series. Bush allowed only seven hits. "One Round" Hack Wilson, after being powerfully raised for eight innings, answered his tormentors with a homer in the ninth.

Pittsburgh showed no signs of quitting their tremendous hitting in swamping the Phils 15 to 9. The Blues allowed only five runs, two being from Grantham's bat while the Phils chipped in four. The Cubs came within one home run of the major league record total for both clubs in a game.

Incidentally there were 12 homers smacked in the National yesterday with six being cracked out in the American.

The once mighty Cards took another slide toward fifth place when they blew one to the Robins. Johnny Frederick the Robins amazing young fly chaser rapped out his twelfth career hit of the year while Chick Hefner pulled up alongside Jim Boutwell with his twenty-second.

resented in the immemorial way. Another of these is that the "Stephenson-Critz" spiking" believed to have been the origin of the inter club feud, was no spiking at all. A third will charge that it was the Cincinnati players, and not Wilson, who were looking for trouble.

"Wilson never looks for trouble," said McCarthy, "but it is his misfortune that he gets it. His peculiar build and his intensity of manner has made him a target for all the chump wisecrackers around the circuit and personally I don't see how he has stood it as long as he has. He is a very sensitive fellow and it would take the bite of an elephant to live down the riding he has absorbed. As for Kolp he didn't get what he deserved after the name he called Wilson. No red-blooded man would have taken it and I'm glad that Hack didn't. He was distinctly the abused party in that incident at least."

Thus runs Chicago's story of the feud and since it is equally acceptable with that presented by Cincinnati and there were no neutral witnesses present John Heydler quite possibly will decide there is nothing in particular to be done about it, except to chide those concerned. This of course won't do a whole lot for Mr. Donohue's claim, neither will it obtain satisfaction for Claude Jonnard, who has been charged with having tripped upon Mr. Donohue's prostrate form in the Chicago railroad yard and longed and leaped and leaped and leaped.

According to general belief, both Mr. Donohue and Jonnard may consider themselves aggrieved. The latter now is believed to have done no leaping

MR. DONOHUE It seems had intended to offer sound advice when he suggested in reply to Mr. Wilson's inquiry as to the location of the Cincinnati car that the latter might get hurt. It simply was Mr. Donohue's misfortune that this was mistaken for a challenge.

According to McCarthy other mistakes were made or there would have been no trouble in the first place.

"Stephenson didn't spike Critz," he declared. "Critz will tell you that himself. My players went rolling into the bag and hit Critz on the leg. I wasn't intentional and Critz wasn't as much as scratched. Why should we try to put their star man out of the line up? We already had them ticked and we would be suckers if we then set out to cripple them for their series with the Giants. It's all a lot of consooing to me."

Stocks Unsettled Under Buying and Selling Waves

UTILITY SHARES OF NEW YORK ADVANCE

Balance of Stocks Show Usual Nervousness Over Money Situation

BROOKLYN UNION UP 9

Radio Declines on Rumors of Decrease in Second Quarter Earnings

BY W. S. COLINS

NEW YORK, July 11.—The New York City gas and electric utility stocks led utilities into higher price levels in a brilliant forward movement this afternoon, while the balance of the market was showing the usual nervousness over money market conditions.

On the whole, today's session was a mixed affair, with speculation being hot and cold as alternate buying and selling waves swept the big board.

Strength and activity of Consolidated Gas and Brooklyn Union was based on the prospect of the consummation of a gigantic merger of these and other lighting properties some time in the remote future.

Investment trusts are also said to be gobbling up all the shares they can find at present prices because of their attractive long pull prospects. Brooklyn Union raised up nine more points to 220, completing a rise of about 30 points on the move, while Consolidated Gas advanced four points to 105 1/2. This is equivalent to 27 1/2 on the stock before the split-up last year.

New gains of one to three points were scored by Standard Gas, American Waterworks, Columbia Gas and Public Service.

Radio's decline to 7 1/2, the lowest on the move, was attributed to rumors of an unfavorable second quarter earnings report to be issued in about two weeks. In the financial district it was said that the Radio pool—traders were endeavoring to tie up a big short interest in the stock, which would help greatly in its recovery later in the year. At today's quotation the stock was selling at the equivalent of 380, against a high of 540 recorded before the 5-for-1 split-up.

Modifying is highly spoken of because thereby so many men feel their selves priced.
